The novel follows the story of two best friends, Sarah and Emily. They've been through thick and thin together, and they're closer than sisters. But when a tragic accident takes Emily's life, Sarah's world is shattered.

In the wake of Emily's death, Sarah begins to receive strange messages. She's not sure who's sending them, but they're full of secrets that Emily never told her. As Sarah investigates, she uncovers a web of lies and betrayals that she never could have imagined.

Soon, Sarah finds herself questioning everything she thought she knew about her best friend. Was Emily really the person she thought she was? And can Sarah trust anyone, even herself?

Best Friends Forever is a suspenseful and twisty thriller that will keep you guessing until the very end. It's a story about the dark side of friendship and the lengths that people will go to protect their secrets.
