- Political instability
- Economic devastation
- Social divisions
- Human rights abuses
- Environmental damage

Navigating these challenges requires a deep understanding of the dynamics of post-conflict transitions. This primer provides a comprehensive theoretical and practical framework for understanding and navigating these complex processes.

The primer is divided into three parts:

1. Conceptual Framework
2. Policy and Practice
3. Case Studies

The Conceptual Framework provides an overview of the key theoretical concepts and approaches to post-conflict transitions. This section covers topics such as:

- The causes and consequences of conflict
- The different phases of post-conflict transitions
- The key challenges and opportunities in post-conflict transitions
- The role of international actors in post-conflict transitions

The Policy and Practice section provides practical guidance on how to design and implement effective post-conflict interventions. This section covers topics such as:

- Conflict resolution and peacebuilding
- Political and economic reconstruction
- Social reconciliation and nation-building
- Transitional justice and human rights

- Development and sustainability

The Case Studies section provides in-depth analysis of a range of post-conflict transitions. This section includes case studies from countries such as:

- Afghanistan
- Colombia
- Liberia
- Mozambique
- Rwanda

This primer is an essential resource for policymakers, practitioners, and scholars involved in post-conflict reconstruction and peacebuilding. It provides a comprehensive understanding of the dynamics of post-conflict transitions and offers practical guidance on how to design and implement effective interventions.
