These accounts are both gripping and unforgettable. They offer a unique and deeply personal perspective on what it was like to fight in the Vietnam Air War. The pilots describe the exhilaration of aerial combat, the terror of being shot down, and the pain of losing friends. They also share their thoughts on the war itself, and on the impact it had on their lives.

The Vietnam Air War: Firsthand Accounts from the Cockpit is a must-read for anyone interested in the Vietnam War, military history, or aviation. It is a powerful and moving tribute to the men who fought in this conflict, and a reminder of the sacrifices they made.
