Finale's story begins in the small town of Twisted Head, New York, where he was raised by his eccentric and often volatile father. From the moment he was born, Finale was destined to be different. His head was twisted to one side, a physical deformity that made him an outcast in his own community.

Despite his challenges, Finale never gave up on his dreams. He became a successful writer and teacher, and he has used his voice to speak out against injustice and prejudice. In Twisted Head, Finale shares his personal story as a way to inspire others who have faced adversity.
